

OUTLINES.

A letter from a missionary at Marash, Turkey, says the people are starving and worse than that, they are killing all the men and carrying away the women; incendiarism and looting prevail.—Senator Dolliver (Republican) of Iowa, continued his speech in the Senate yesterday, appealing for genuine tariff revision. He again had a controversy with Senator Aldrich.—In the Hains trial at Flushing, N. Y., yesterday a hypothetical question of 10,000 words was presented, and an alienist testified that Hains was irrational at the time of the killing of W. E. Annis.—The Shah has issued a proclamation proclaiming a constitution in Persia and calling an election to give the people a voice in the government.—Up to Tuesday, ex-President Roosevelt, in his African hunt, had killed four lions and a lioness, and Kermet Roosevelt had killed one lion.—The possibilities of the early passage of the new tariff bill at Washington have vanished. President Taft will hold Congress down to the passage of a satisfactory bill if it takes till July.—Seven persons, convicted in the municipal graft cases in Pittsburgh, were sentenced yesterday.—Mrs. Sarah Dawson, of Charleston, S. C., widow of Capt. Francis W. Dawson, died suddenly yesterday in Paris.—James H. Boyle, charged with the abduction of Willie Whitha, of Sharou, Pa., was placed on trial yesterday at Mercer. Mrs. Boyle will probably testify for the State.—A negro desperado was shot to death in his cell in the Lee county, (Ga.) jail yesterday after an exciting fight with a deputy.—New York markets: Money on call 3 3/4 to 2 per cent., ruling rate 2, closing bid 1 1/2, offered at 1 1/2. Spot cotton quiet, 10.90. Flour dull but firm. Wheat, No. 2 red 1.43 1/2 to 1.45 elevator. Corn steady, No. 2, 83 elevator. Oats firmer, mixed 58 1/2 to 60. Turpentine and rosin quiet.

It is stated that in Hungerford, Eng., they have a "kissing day" each year. Oh, Mr. Conductor, put us off at Hungerford.

A Republican Senator again assures us that "Taft will carry out Roosevelt's policies." Well let him carry some of them out in the woods and lose them.

Abdul Hamid has been confined as a prisoner in company with his four wives. In the event of a domestic row with his squad, Ab surely will be compelled to come to the scratch.

Prof. Pickering wants people to take stock in his $10,000,000 scheme to signal to the inhabitants of Mars. No, thank you. We are going to put our money on a plan to buy up all the aircrafts in North Carolina.

It is attributed to George Washington that he remarked to his father: "I cannot tell a lie." History makes no reference to his claim of truthfulness after he had become a married man and had to give an account of his meanderings.

Walter Wellman has again bobbed up. In Washington on Tuesday he announced that he would this Summer make another effort to reach the North Pole by an airship or dirigible balloon. If hot air will reach the Pole it's Walter's sooner or later.

The latest prognostication in connection with the eastern Federal judgeship is that either District Attorney Harry Skinner or Judge H. G. Connor will be appointed judge. This is according to Tom Pence, Washington correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer.

Some of our State contemporaries condemn the "tag" system employed by the ladies to raise funds for charitable purposes. No editor who has ever been tagged by a Wilmington tagger could feel otherwise than powerful nice strolling around with his tag. We haven't got the heart to be an anti-tagger.

Mr. Isaac S. London, of Pittsboro, has assumed the editorial management of the Siler City Crit. If the young editor is "a chip off the old block" he is bound to make good. His father, Major Henry A. London, for thirty years has been editor of the Chatham Record and certainly no paper has had an editor so true and staunch in all that makes for conscientiousness, fidelity and integrity in his editorial career.

At San Sebastian, Spain, yesterday Ex-President Castro, of Venezuela, said that his physicians advised him to go to the Canary Islands. He expressed the hope that the Spanish government would raise no objection to his residence there, as he was desirous of living henceforth away from political agitation.

The Missouri Senate yesterday passed the State-wide prohibition constitutional amendment with a tax rider and eliminating the 1913 limitation. The vote was 23 to 8.

THE COLONIAL DAMES

Annual Meeting and Pilgrimage Yesterday Featured by Most Interesting Exercises.

THE TABLET UNVEILING

Historical Scenes of Colonial Times Commemorated by Permanent Monument to Heroes of an Earlier Period—Officers.

Most interesting exercises yesterday attended the annual meeting and pilgrimage of the North Carolina Society of the Colonial Dames of America to historic St. Philip's Church, at Old Brunswick, and the ruins of Governor Tryon's mansion at ancient Russelborough, a short distance away, impressive services of a devotional nature having been held within the ruins of the old church and inspiring ceremonies having marked the unveiling of a permanent tablet commemorative of the deeds of the earlier patriots of the Cape Fear on the ruins of the former palace.

The day was ideal for an outing of the kind and more than two hundred of the Dames and their friends interested in historical research were privileged to enjoy the pilgrimage with them on the handsome steamer Wilmington with the gallant Captain John W. Harper at the helm. Most of the members of the Society went down to Orton, the beautiful country home of their president, on the morning trip of the steamer where they were most elegantly entertained in the forenoon and where the annual meeting was held. The most important feature of the annual meeting was the hearing of the yearly reports, all of which were very gratifying, and the election of officers for the ensuing year which resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. James Sprunt.

Resident Vice President—Mrs. A. M. Waddell.

Non-resident Vice Presidents—Mrs. Grier Brenner, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mary Arrington, of Goldsboro.

Five members of the Board of Managers were elected as follows: Mrs. Clayton Giles, Sr., Mrs. W. N. Harris, Mrs. M. F. H. Gouverneur, Mrs. William Calder, and Miss Carrie Moore.

The board also held its annual meeting and the following were selected: Mrs. E. P. Bailey, treasurer; Mrs. W. N. Harris, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Latimer, registrar; Mrs. Edmund L. Prince, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Strange, historian.

The exercises at the church began shortly after the arrival of the steamer Wilmington in the afternoon, which conveyed a large party of Wilmington visitors, the public in general being extended an invitation to attend the exercises at the church and the unveiling of the tablet. Besides the visitors quite a number of the Colonial Dames, who were unable to attend the annual meeting in the morning at Orton were on the afternoon boat. The excellent weather was a distinct feature of the success of the pilgrimage, which was carried out splendidly and with due reverence for historical Old Brunswick and Russelborough.

At the conclusion of the annual meeting of the society, at which time officers were elected, followed by the meeting of the board and a sumptuous luncheon delightfully served on the beautiful lawn of Orton Plantation, tendered to the Dames by Mr. and Mrs. James Sprunt, the company proceeded to old St. Philip's church in conveyances and the ceremonies began shortly before 4 o'clock.

The gathering was inside of the standing walls of the old church and the assemblage was inspired by the historical surroundings. The Colonial Dames entered the walled enclosure in a body singing "America" and the ceremonies were formally opened by the singing of Processional Hymn No. 196, followed by other devotional exercises led by Rev. A. W. Seabreeze and Rev. Thos. P. Noe, concluding with a prayer and the benediction. The historical address by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, a feature of the pilgrimage, and the close of the exercises at the church, was highly appropriate and was a fitting tribute to the historic surroundings and the work of the Colonial Dames. He spoke in part as follows, addressing his remarks to the President, Colonial Dames and friends:

"Within these sacred walls I feel myself honored to attend your request and represent you at this place and in the ceremonies of the day in which you have had oratory and eloquence, and on other occasions essays well prepared and read. I feel myself under a spell to listen to the undertones that play through these pines and other forest trees, as a song without words, sacred and sweet. Fortunately I am not invited to oratory, eloquence or an essay on those matters so interestingly connected with the history of this place. My invitation was to read an essay, as a prize essay, by some student of our State University. As that essay has not reached us I have decided to take refuge in a book recently printed, of great value and

EDUCATIONAL RALLIES

Two Interesting Meetings Yesterday in Interest of Public Schools. Another Appointment Today. Splendid Addresses.

Two enthusiastic and most interesting educational rallies were held yesterday afternoon in Cape Fear township in the interest of the school election to be held May 26th, the appointments having been 3:30 o'clock in District No. 12 and at Castle Haynes, at both of which places there was a good attendance and marked concern on the part of the people.

Prominent local speakers were heard at each appointment, the party having gone out from Wilmington in two automobiles. At the first appointment, Chairman George Rountree, of the Board of Education, presided and after devotional exercises, the chairman welcomed the goodly number of people in attendance in a splendid address, calling attention to the importance of the situation now presented to the people of the county and admonishing them to awake to a sense of their responsibility. The chief addresses at this appointment were by Louis Goodman and Herbert McClammy, Esqs., prominent members of the local bar, who are heart and soul in the movement for maintenance of the schools. Mr. Goodman's remarks were intensely practical, while Mr. McClammy was vigorous and eloquent in his plea for an enlightened citizenship and the duty of the parent and country to the children. Both addresses made a marked impression upon the audience and the meeting was accounted a highly successful one in every particular.

Upon conclusion of the meeting in District No. 12, the party left in automobiles for Castle Haynes some five miles further along the beautiful driveway and were greeted by a goodly number of friends of education at Castle Haynes. The principal address there was by Chairman Rountree, who drew to the hearts of all his hearers the soundest reasons why the people should vote for a maintenance of the schools. Addresses were also made by Mr. W. H. Sprunt, of the Board of Education; Members-elect Jas. H. Chadbourn, John H. Hanby, County Superintendent Catlett and Mr. D. J. Fergus, formerly of Masonboro, but now of this city. Nearly every line of argument was covered by these speakers and the meeting was a most enthusiastic one.

A similar rally will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Piner's store, on the Masonboro road, and the people of that section are cordially invited to attend.

FUNERAL OF MR. EMERSON.

Remains Arrived Yesterday Morning From Phoenix, Arizona—Services.

The remains of the late Mr. Neil D. Emerson, whose sad death occurred Saturday at Phoenix, Arizona, reached the city yesterday morning on a special train, accompanied by the bereaved father and other members of the family and the funeral will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from St. John's Episcopal Church. The greatest sympathy of the community goes out to the stricken ones in their sorrow and the funeral will be attended by many friends from this city and elsewhere. Among those who have arrived from out of the city are Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shocomb, parents of Mrs. Emerson; Mrs. R. G. Haigh and Miss Marion Shocomb, of Fayetteville. The interment will be in the family lot in Oakdale cemetery.

CLOSING THE WHARVES.

Observant Citizen Remarks Upon Closing of City Docks.

An observant citizen, always with an eye to the future progress and prosperity of Wilmington, remarked very positively yesterday about the tendency of late to close the city docks, calling attention to the fact that people from the country now have practically no facilities here for marketing their wood and other produce by the river. He well says that no city or town in independent of its back country and unless every facility is offered to the country people to market their products, the business will go elsewhere. The suggestion seems not inappropos and those charged with the administration of affairs in the future, it is remarked, might well look into this matter.

MR. T. M. GRANT WON

Orator's Medal to Popular Young Wilmingtonian at Trinity College.

Many friends in Wilmington will be delighted to learn that Mr. Thos. M. Grant, a popular young Wilmington student at Trinity College, in the annual oratorical contest there on Monday night won the orator's medal over about fifteen competitors for the prize, which is one of the most valuable in college life at Trinity. This is quite a high distinction for Mr. Grant, who is this year a senior at Trinity and has taken a very heavy course of study. Mr. Grant won the debater's medal in his sophomore year and has achieved other college distinctions, which is a safe earnest of a most useful career in after-life.

THE DAY IN RALEIGH

State Federation of Women's Clubs Down to Hard Work in Convention.

INTERESTING ADDRESSES

Encouraging News From Field of Education—The North Carolina Sunday School Association. Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Raleigh, N. C., May 5.—The second day of the seventh annual session of the Federation of Women's Clubs was characterized by an opening session at 9:30 o'clock this morning in Representatives Hall, with quite a large and enthusiastic attendance of delegates and Raleigh club women ready now, following the delightful reception last night at the Governor's mansion, to settle down to a day of routine work.

Credentials were presented by many new arrivals the total attendance being 52. Invocation was offered by Mrs. T. N. Ivey. There were reports of quite creditable and interesting character from a number of the departments including library extension, education, art and music. Mr. Louis R. Wilson spoke of the work projected for the State Library Commission provided for by the recent Legislature and the part that the women of the State can take in increasing the success of the effort in the direction of the best possible results from the use of the public libraries of the State.

Mrs. R. R. Cotton spoke inspiring of the work of the joint education committee of the N. E. A. There was a talk heard with profit on the work of the Woman's Betterment Societies in public school advancement by Mrs. W. R. Hollowell.

At 1:30 o'clock the ladies partook of a delicious luncheon at the Woman's Club building provided by the Raleigh Merchants' Association as a compliment to the Federation.

This afternoon there were further reports on the work of various departments of the Federation including industrial and child labor, reciprocity club study, household economics, literature and forestry. The ladies heard an address by Mrs. W. N. Hutt on the special work of the Woman's Branch of Farmers' Institutes.

Tonight there was an address by Miss Laura Drake Gill, chairman of the committee on Education of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Reports of successful local tax elections for the improvement of schools are coming in to the State Department of Education rapidly now and there are still probably 75 of these elections to be held within the next thirty days. Among those just reported are Mount Holly, bond election and increase of tax rate from 30 to 45 cents, Washington, N. C., local tax by overwhelming majority; Morven, Anson county, local tax; Hamlet, school bonds and Newbern additional special tax.

The Central Executive committee of the North Carolina Sunday School Association has decided to employ as early as possible an efficient general secretary and put him in the field for all his time. The central committee is composed of N. B. Broughton, Raleigh; W. J. Young, Raleigh; H. M. Andrews, Henderson; Rev. C. B. Cox, Burlington; Rev. S. M. Rankin, Greensboro; George W. Watts, Durham; E. Moffitt, Ashboro.

Secretary of State Grimes went to Washington, N. C., today to attend a meeting at which United States Engineer Earl I. Brown, of Wilmington, will hear citizens as to the need of deepening Pamlico river to Washington and deepening Tar River to ten feet draft as far as Grimesland and as deep as possible to Greenville.

Col. Grimes was also advised today through letters from the Engineers that it seems desirable now to take in Holly Shelter Bay, Pender county, in the course of the intra-coastal waterway in order to get the best route from New River to Northeast river.

Junius McKoy, under sentence in Robeson county, to be hanged May 25th for murder, is respited by Governor Kitchin to June 25th in order that attorneys who but recently came into the case may have time to prepare an application to the Governor for commutation to life imprisonment.

TRIP TO OLD BRUNSWICK.

Excursion Will be Run by St. John's Parish Guild Next Week.

The ladies of St. John's Parish Guild announce that they will conduct an excursion on the steamer Wilmington to Old Brunswick and Russelborough during next week, the date to be given later, which will doubtless be a pleasant and interesting outing. This excursion will be conducted in order that the people of Wilmington may have the privilege of viewing the new tablet placed by the North Carolina Society of Colonial Dames yesterday and the historic surroundings. The steamer Wilmington has been engaged and Mr. James Sprunt has given permission for the excursion party to have the outing at this place. It has been definitely decided upon and the date will be given during the latter part of the week.

THE GENTRY SHOWS HERE

Old Favorites to Give Two Exhibitions at Fourth and Castle Streets. Many Changes in Personnel of Outfit and Programme.

Few Wilmington people, especially of the younger generation, need be told that this is show day in the city. Early this morning "The Gentry Brothers' Famous Shows United" will arrive in the city and begin pitching their tents in the vacant lot at Fourth and Castle streets where two exhibitions will be given this afternoon and evening, following a parade that is promised along the principal streets of the city.

While Gentry Brothers have been visiting this city for twenty years or more and are appropriately classed as "old favorites," it will be news to many that the performances this year will be somewhat different from those of past years when the animal actors almost completely monopolized the programme. Five hundred four-footed performers, as the advance man calls them, still form the basis for this great show but in addition there are now a number of high-class circus acts, enabling the management to present a much more diversified entertainment and one in many respects superior to the larger shows that tour the South each year. This frees the show of sameness and similarity and at the same time adds greatly to the ring performances as an entertainment. The time has also come, in the opinion of the Gentry Brothers, for all high class tent shows to improve their street parade, which is, after all, a pretty fair index as to the character and quality of the performance, and their street pageant this season, while still a miniature affair, is said to be one of the handsomest spectacles on wheels.

The Gentry show train will reach the city about 6 o'clock from Newbern and goes to Fayetteville after the performances here today.

AN APPEALING SERMON

Rev. Richard Orme Flinn at First Presbyterian Church Last Night.

The large auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church was almost completely filled last night to hear Rev. Richard Orme Flinn, of Atlanta, who is conducting a series of evangelistic services there this week, the sermon last night having been one of the strongest of those yet delivered, a powerful appeal to the unsaved and those who have grown cold and indifferent to their responsibilities as Christians.

The music was a feature, the regular choir having been augmented by a number of other favorite singers and during the service a solo having been rendered with fine effect by Mr. R. A. Brand, who has a sweet tenor voice and sings with animation and spirit.

Rev. Mr. Flinn had for his text last night, "Awake Thou That Sleepest, arise from the dead and Christ will give thee life." The speaker having developed with telling effect the state of those out of touch with Christ as described in the text; the warning that is given and the reassurance of those who will heed the call to salvation. Mr. Flinn was most apt in his illustrations and the smiles employed to drive to the hearts of the unprofessing the Bible truths as presented in the text, his sermon being practical and appealing. It is bound to have visible effect upon all who came under the influence of his earnest appeal for the higher life.

Dr. Wells announced that the meeting tonight at 8:15 P. M. would be especially though not exclusively for the young men and their friends though the invitation continues general to all the public. Each morning at 8:30 there is a special prayer meeting service in the hall of the church to which all are also invited. A pleasing feature of this evening's service will be the attendance of the Boys' Brigade in a body and all other young men of the city will be cordially welcomed.

CAPT. ROBERT GREEN

Retires From Service of City After Thirty-Six Long Years as Officer.

With the passing of the old city administration yesterday, one could not repress a feeling of regret to know that it marked the end of a long service of 36 years on the part of one of Wilmington's most popular department officials, Captain Robert Green, whose geniality and kindness is proverbial wherever he is known. Captain Green has been with each successive city administration since the yellow fever epidemic at Memphis some 30 years ago, both as quarantine officer and the police department and it will not look "quite the same" about the City Hall and on the streets without the "irrepressible Captain Bob" clothed with the authority of the law. May he live longer and prosper still is the hearty wish of everyone, who enjoys his acquaintance.

Real Estate Transfers.

Deeds filed for record yesterday: Mrs. Joanna Peschau to H. F. Otten, for $500 and other considerations, property on east side of Fifth, 50 feet north of Grace street, 65x165 feet in size, more or less. John Johnson and wife to Henry C. Mason, for $10 and other considerations, part of lot 4 in block 3 and lot 2 in block 4, Mercer Place.

NEW REGIME BEGINS

Result of Election Officially Declared and Officers-Elect Take Charge Affairs.

CAPT. W. G. MACRAE MAYOR

Formally Inducted into Office With Brief Inaugural Address—Police Commission Qualifies—Department Officials.

Upon the official proclamation of the result of Tuesday's election by the Board of Canvassers yesterday noon at the City Hall, the newly elected Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington at once qualified and organized with the election of Capt. Walter G. MacRae, the primary nominee, as Mayor and transacted such other business as was necessary to the assumption of the affairs of government.

Quite a number of citizens gathered at the City Hall to witness the simple ceremonies attendant upon the change of government and received the new administration with enthusiastic acclaim, while at the same time regretting, of course, the severance of pleasant associations with the old order of affairs. The exercises accompanying the change of government required less than an hour, all of the caucus nominees being unanimously elected and the Board adjourning with the best of feeling and determination to serve the people to the very best of their ability.

The first matter taken up was the canvass of the vote in Tuesday's election by the Board of Canvassers composed of Messrs. A. G. Hankins, chairman; W. McD. Evans, W. W. Hodges, J. R. Bear and J. H. Sykes. The result in the several wards was as printed in yesterday morning's paper and the chairman made due proclamation of the result at the door of the City Hall, as required by law, the following being named as the Aldermen from the respective wards: First, J. A. Karr and W. L. West; Second, Jos. H. Hinton and F. W. Bonitz; Third, S. J. Ellis and Louis E. Hall; Fourth, B. O. Stone and W. E. Yopp; Fifth, Thos. H. Willard and J. B. Pales.

All members of the Board were present, having held a preliminary meeting in the Mayor's office across the hall at 11:15 o'clock, and immediately the result was declared, they came over into the council chamber, were sworn in by City Clerk and Treasurer John J. Fowler and subscribed to the oath as required. Upon motion of Alderman Karr, Alderman F. W. Bonitz was called to the chair and the election of a Mayor was declared in order. Alderman Stone in a most appropriate manner nominated Capt. Walter G. MacRae and there were enthusiastic seconding speeches by several of the members. The election of Capt. MacRae was unanimous and by a rising vote after which Messrs. Stone, Willard and Hinton were appointed a committee to notify him of his election and escort him to the hall. The Mayor-elect was in waiting just across the hall and his appearance before the new council was greeted by enthusiastic applause from the Aldermen and spectators. The Chief Executive was sworn in by City Clerk Fowler and in assuming the chair made a few brief remarks, thanking the council for its election in confirmation of the voice of the people in the primary and pledging his very best effort to the city and the city's interest, declaring for an enforcement of the law and a clean government. Capt. MacRae is too well known to the people of Wilmington to need commendation from newspaper sources. His brief inaugural yesterday was characteristic of the man, sincere and wholesome. He will fill the position to which he has been elevated with credit to himself and the people of Wilmington. Soon after his election, Capt. MacRae recommended and the Board unanimously confirmed the appointment of Alderman S. J. Ellis as Mayor Pro Tem. Mr. Ellis is a man experienced in affairs of city government, honest, sincere and will ably fill the position when called upon in the absence of his chief.

The Board next went into the election of department and subordinate officials, the caucus nominees in each instance being chosen unanimously as follows: John J. Fowler, city clerk and treasurer, upon motion of Ellis; C. H. White, assistant clerk and treasurer, upon motion of Hall; Herbert McClammy, Esq., city attorney, upon motion of Fales; Dr. Jos. Akerman, superintendent of health, upon motion of Hinton; R. O. Grant, superintendent of streets, upon motion of Willard; H. E. Bonitz, building inspector, upon motion of Karr; Dr. T. B. Carroll, meat and dairy inspector, motion of West; E. Piner, quarantine officer, motion of Ellis; J. C. Vereen, J. S. Lynch and J. H. Holton, health officers, motion of Ellis; T. H. Johnson, clerk front street market, motion of Karr; S. O. Frink, Fourth street market clerk, motion of West; S. L. Yopp, cattle weigher, motion of Ellis; R. H. Grant, plumbing inspector, motion of Willard; Drs. T. S. Burbank and A. H. Harriss and Jos. D. Smith, members of Board of Health, motion of Hinton; C. R. Humphreys, city engineer, motion of Hall; A. T. Cox, janitor front

GOOD ROADS FOR ROBESON.

The Morning Star has always taken a deep interest in the good roads movement in this State, and it is especially gratifying when the counties adjacent to Wilmington inaugurate a movement for better rural highways. In this flat country the roads are execrable and the farmers have no idea of their costliness. The farmer who gets his produce to market easily and quickly over good roads, saves money by it, hence good roads are money makers. We have learned that object lesson in New Hanover county, and those who travel along our improved roadways in the different sections of the county will note the wonderful development that has been brought about by better highways. Not only do the truckers and farmers reach market with less trouble and with decided economy, but the great increase in farm values very signally emphasizes the vital importance of good roads.

There is a vast territory in Eastern North Carolina, tributary to Wilmington, that is capable of enormous production if there were only settlers to take up the land, or if there were good roads for the use of the inhabitants already engaged in farming and trucking. Good roads will not only afford better facilities to the people already settled around us but improved highways will induce immigration. The lands are fertile and once that it is known that we have thousands of acres of land of great productiveness, cheap for the settler, and good roads to boot, we will see thousands of settlers coming to Eastern Carolina.

This section is naturally the garden spot for New York and other great cities, for it is capable of producing a great variety of early crops, and there is the one great advantage that we are in easy and quick reach of the great markets over a great trunk railway that daily sends trains of refrigerator cars to all points North. The facilities for handling produce are ideal and our nearness to the big cities makes this a logical region that is really inviting if not enticing to settlers. If we but take advantage of our resources and opportunities, we will see a great movement of settlers in this direction.

The Lumberton Robesonian staged the Star off on this question, and this article was begun to endorse an editorial of that esteemed contemporary, urging a good roads campaign in Robeson county. The Robesonian thus places the question before the people of Robeson and they could not do more for their county than to act at once upon the capital and timely suggestion made by that excellent paper:

"They have begun a campaign in Davidson county for bonds in the sum of $500,000 for permanent roads. We have suggested several times that that is the amount Robeson county ought to issue for the same purpose. Surely if Davidson, which is very little if any more than half as large as Robeson, and not so rich, can afford to issue bonds in that sum to build roads, Robeson can. If Robeson does not wake up to the advantages of good roads and take steps to build them smaller counties that do realize the immense advantages to be derived from good roads will outstrip it in wealth and its boast of being the largest county in the State will be a reproach. Instead of people saying that this is the largest county and in many respects the best and richest county, how would you like to hear people say that it is the largest county but it is crushed with poor roads which are a worker by an antiquated system? If the county does not want to rest under the domination of a 'but' like that it will have to get busy. If this county had splendid highways all over it it would be a garden spot, but unless it is so covered it is going to be surpassed by other counties that cannot measure up to it now in many respects.

"Why not form a good roads association in Robeson for the purpose of waging a campaign for a bond issue for permanent improvement? The men who will accomplish the building of permanent roads in the county will accomplish more for the real good of the county than could be accomplished in any other way."

It is a fact that Robeson county is one of the most fertile in the State, and when the resources of the county are known and good roads are built to make those resources available, there is bound to be a great development in the county. The Star hopes to see the people of Robeson act promptly upon the Robesonian's suggestion. It is a question of exceedingly great importance.

DETRIMENTAL FREIGHT RATES.

The Charlotte Chronicle of Tuesday calls attention to a matter which is seriously affecting the interests and future development of the city of Charlotte. It is a matter of freight rates, and of this the Chronicle says: "You have a live town here, Mr. Secretary, and I should like to live here, but your freight rates are so unequal and so unjust that the territory over which I could operate is so limited as to prevent my locating here as I had planned. You need a strong well posted railroad man to work on this matter and secure adjustment of the outrageous condition now existing. If Charlotte was put on an equality with points in other States now controlling the territory with certain commodities, there is nothing could prevent her doubling her freight business in a short time. Charlotte has everything else but freight rates. Why don't your citizens do something to rectify this matter?"

"Thus spoke Mr. Harrison who came all the way from Pine Bluff, Ark., expecting to go into business in Charlotte. Mr. Harrison is not the first one who has come to Charlotte expecting to locate and been forced to go away because of the impossibility of doing a profitable business with existing freight rates.

"A solution is possible to this unjust discrimination which is costing the business men of Charlotte hundreds of thousands of dollars each year. To arrive at this solution a committee was appointed by the Greater Charlotte Club, consisting of seven business men who have drafted the plans for an organization to have for its one object the adjustment of the inequalities in existing freight rates.

"Every business man in the city of Charlotte is called upon to co-operate in this movement, and it is necessary that at least 100 firms and individuals join this movement in order to give it sufficient strength to be effective. "Never before has there been a more determined effort put forth to do something to relieve Charlotte of a burden which is entirely preventing developments along certain lines.

"Every business house in the city should support this movement which is in the hands of some of the ablest business men. Join the Tariff Bureau and help make a determined effort to get better rates. Organized effort properly directed will win."

One of Charlotte's disadvantages is a lack of low freight rates adequate to the importance of that growing city. Under the rules of the traffic managers great injustice is done the Queen City, and her business is greatly hampered by actual discrimination that is totally unwarranted. Charlotte would be a great wholesale centre but for proper freight rates, and the movement there to remedy the situation is well warranted.

This movement in Charlotte gives The Star an opportunity also to suggest to the people of that city that one of the remedies for relief lies in deep water at the port of Wilmington. If we can get that 30-foot channel from Wilmington to the sea, it will give a basis for cheaper rates in Charlotte and other interior points connected by rail with this port. It, therefore, behooves the business men of Charlotte to lose no opportunity in co-operating in Wilmington's efforts to get a deep water channel so we can get the freight rates necessary to develop a great State like North Carolina.

WE NEED MANUFACTORIES.

In this morning's Star we publish a timely communication from Mr. Henderson Cole. In an impressive way he calls attention to the fact that if we must retain our people or increase the growth of Wilmington, we must start some manufacturing enterprises. He is right, and it is hoped that our business men will read what he says and co-operate with him in any movement for bettering Wilmington's industrial conditions.

The wringing of $2,134,411 from the Sugar Trust by the Government for tariff duties evaded by the Trust, does not mean all that unconscionable interest has done Uncle Sam out of. However, what Uncle Sam has been squeezed for is a mere bagatelle compared with what the Trust does to consumers in maintaining high prices under a Republican tariff which levies toll on the people for the sugar refiners.

It is announced that a fish with a beard like a billy-goat has been taken from the depths of the Pacific Ocean. Gee! It may be the only tariff reform Republican Senator who had jumped overboard.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"A stock company was chartered in Raleigh Monday for publishing a Republican paper in Charlotte. Mr. J. A. Smith, who ran for Congress last year, is to be editor. If Mr. Smith is seeking to promote his political aspirations by putting on editorial harness, he is showing poor judgment. A news paper office is the most unlikely place in the world for political lightning to strike.—Newton Enterprise.

"Says the Wilmington Star: 'We have had a great educational Governor, a great industrial Governor, and now according to the Winston Sentinel, we have the silent Governor, who believes in actions, not in words.' And we would like to add that the 'silent Governor' is proving the truth of the saying that 'Silence is golden,' and is winning for himself golden opinions.—Kinston Free Press.

"There has been a notable revival of the tobacco interests in both Virginia and South Carolina, but there seems to be no inclination on the part of the farmers in the tobacco section of North Carolina to return to the abandoned tobacco fields. At one time the tobacco interest was a flourishing one in Salisbury. There would seem to be no reason why that town should not again become a tobacco market and one of the best in the State. Stanley is another good tobacco county. In this section of the State tobacco overlaps cotton and there ought to be as much money in tobacco growing in Rowan and Stanley as there is in Forsyth and Granville. The cultivation of tobacco requires a good deal of toil and attention—more, perhaps, than any other crop, and certainly more than cotton—but pound for pound there is much more money in tobacco than there is in cotton. There are thousands of acres of good tobacco land in North Carolina lying idle and inviting a profitable cultivation.—Charlotte Chronicle.

No higher honor has come to a Southern scholar than the selection of Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, head of the Department of English at the University of North Carolina, to the Roosevelt professorship of American History and Institutions in the University of Berlin, for the year 1910-11. The men who have filled this position for a term are Dean Burgess, of Columbia; President Hadley, of Yale; Prof. Felix, of Columbia, and President Wheeler, of the University of California—four of the most eminent scholars in America. That a native son of North Carolina and Dean of the Department of English in the University of North Carolina, should be chosen to succeed them is an honor of which the whole State is proud. It is an honor, indeed, that will be received with pleasure throughout the whole South, for Dr. Smith is the first Southern teacher so honored. This distinction which Dr. Smith has attained is a deserved one. He has come to it step by step by the thoroughness of his work from the day he taught a small school in the village of Selma after graduation up to this hour. He has been a diligent student and has grown to be a scholar of National and international reputation, because of natural ability he has added the intelligent application and mastery of his mother tongue. The distinction he has achieved should prove a stimulus to the ambitious young men of the South.—Raleigh News and Observer.

NEED OF MANUFACTORIES FOR WILMINGTON.

Editor Star:—As business men and citizens of Wilmington, we are confronted with a condition which must be met in a business manner, else suffer a loss which we can ill afford.

We have several hundred unemployed people here who must have employment, else leave the city.

I know the people of the city can raise sufficient money to establish a manufacturing plant that will meet this emergency. If the owners of real estate, the merchants, and the professional men of Wilmington would subscribe in amounts from $100.00 to $10,000.00 each, sufficient capital to "put up and keep going" such an enterprise, if they never received one dollar as dividends, the increase in their respective business—the rentals, profits on goods, pay for professional services, the enhanced valuation of real estate, etc., would make it a profitable investment. However, it is not at all necessary that it should run without making a profit.

I need my money—all of it—in my business, but I will subscribe liberally to the capital stock of such an enterprise and I know others who will do the same. I have not attempted to go into details, but merely with this as a beginner. I trust that others will write about it.

I will suggest that everyone who is willing to meet in a mass meeting to be called at some convenient time, to indicate it by writing a card to either of the daily papers.

Tariff schedules are made complicated for the purpose of deception. Senator Nelson, of Minnesota, discovers that while the Aldrich tariff bill professes to lower the tariff on lumber there are numerous "jokers" in the lumber schedule which make the rates on lumber actually higher than have been. This tariff law, like all others since the Walker tariff has been written by the beneficiaries of the tariff. They have robbed the people because the people didn't see the trick.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—Clinton, May 4.—A hot political contest closed today in the town election. There were two tickets running, a regular Democratic, nominated by a primary, and a citizens' ticket, nominated by a mass meeting. The mass meeting questioned the legality of the primary call. The citizens' ticket was elected by 18 majority. A. McL. Graham, mayor; W. J. Pugh, C. M. Faircloth, J. L. Kerr, M. J. Herring, aldermen.

—Spencer, May 4.—J. D. Dorsett, Republican, was today elected mayor of Spencer with a majority of 117 over W. L. Ray, Democrat. The newly-elected board of aldermen is composed of three Democrats, H. M. Cook, R. C. Bell and J. S. Eagle, and three Republicans, P. J. Roseman, D. B. Greenhill and Jas. Schofield. A proposition to issue $50,000 of waterworks bonds carried by a majority of 200.

ROBERT FULTON AS A LAD.

Incidents Illustrating the Young Man's Interest in Mechanics.

There are several anecdotes which relate to Robert Fulton's early interest in mechanics—the first steps of progress toward his later skill. In 1773, when he was eight years old, his mother, having previously taught him to read and write, sent him to a school kept by Mr. Caleb Johnson, a Quaker gentleman of pronounced Tory principles—so pronounced, in fact, that he narrowly escaped with his life during the Revolution. But Robert Fulton did not care for books, and he began at a very early age to search for problems never mastered and bound in print. This greatly distressed the Quaker teacher, who spared not the rod, and it is said that in administering such discipline on the hand of Robert Fulton he one day testily exclaimed, "There, that will make you do something!" to which Robert, with folded arms, replied, "Sir, I came to have something beaten into my brains and not into my knuckles." Without doubt he was a trial to his teacher.

He entered school one day very late, and when the master inquired the reason Robert, with frank interest, replied that he had been at Nicholas Miller's shop pounding out lead for a pencil. "It is the very best I ever had, sir," he affirmed as he displayed his product. The master, after an examination of the pencil, pronounced it excellent. When Robert's mother, who had been distressed by his lack of application to his studies, expressed to his teacher her pleasure at signs of improvement the latter confided to her that Robert had said to him, "My head is so full of original notions that there is no vacant chamber to stow away the contents of dusty books."

These incidents to the contrary, it is nevertheless true that Robert Fulton did absorb a good knowledge of the rudiments of education.—Century Magazine.

THE TRAPPED THIEF.

A Midnight Adventure With South American Desperadoes.

In describing certain experiences among the outlaws and desperadoes of South America an English traveler tells the following grisly story:

"One night a farmer was roused from sleep by hearing unusual and stealthy noises about the place. He got quietly out of bed and, after listening attentively, discovered that some people outside were cutting a hole through the door close to the bolt by which it was held.

"It did not require any great amount of detective talent to guess the object of the operation, and the best way to foil it was suggested by a thong of rawhide with a loop on it which hung from a hook on the inside of the door. Noiselessly removing the thong, he slipped the end of it through the loop, and there he stood armed with an impromptu lasso, ready for action.

"It was an anxious time while the farmer stood watching the hole in the door grow larger and larger until at last it was of sufficient size to effect the purpose for which it was made.

"The supreme moment arrived, and a hand was stealthily inserted not only through the hole, but also through the loop of the little lasso which hung skillfully around it. With a sudden jerk the loop was tightened around the wrist and the hand dragged in as far as the aperture would allow, while the thong was securely fastened to the book on the back of the door.

"The robber was perfectly helpless. His companions came to his aid and, having ineffectually dragged at the imprisoned arm till they were tired, gave up the struggle and prepared to depart.

"But they were prudent men, and it occurred to them to save himself their companion might betray them. Dead men, they thought, tell no tales, so they killed him."—New York Mail.

A Maharajah's Revenge.

A maharajah of Nepal committed suicide in horror at the disgraceful which an attack of smallpox had caused in her features. The maharajah, who was passionately attached to her, first wreaked his vengeance on the physicians who had attended her in her illness. Then he flew at higher game. Out of the great temple he brought the idols, placed loaded cannon before them and bade gunners fire. In terror at the proposed blasphemy, they refused. Thereupon the maharajah hanged several of them. The survivors then submitted, and the guns were fired and the idols blown to pieces.—Leipsic Missionsblatt.

The Coveted Hand.

The young man had gone to the helpless father—always a ticklish job—but he took his courage with an iron grip.

"Sir," he blurted out, "I want to ask you for your daughter's hand."

The old man, not in the least discouraged, said:

"Which hand? The one she signs checks with, I suppose?"

Hit Him Hard.

"I presume," said the lodger icily at the conclusion of the little dispute with his landlady—"I presume that you will allow me to take my belongings away with me?"

"I am sorry," was the icy reply, "but your other collar has not yet come home from the laundry."—Kansas City Independent.

—Friends of Mr. Benjamin B. Jackson will regret to know that yesterday he suffered an acute attack of appendicitis, later necessitating his removal to the hospital for an operation. Hundreds of friends of the young man and the family hope and pray that the operation will be successful and that he will early be restored to health.

AT SAINT ANDREW'S.

Rev. Mr. Wright Being Heard With

Much Favor by Congregations.

An even larger congregation than at the opening service heard Rev. Frank H. Wright, the evangelist, at Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church last night and were charmed both with his strong presentation of Bible truth from the pulpit and his sweet singing, two solos with violin and piano accompaniment, before and after the sermon, having been rendered with fine effect. Then in addition the regular music was furnished by a large voluntary choir and this feature of the service was most enjoyable. Rev. Mr. Wright had for the text of his sermon, "My Spirit Shall Not Always Strive With Thee," and the points made with telling effect upon his hearers were that God is sovereign in salvation through his spirit and that man is a free agent to yield or resist the promptings of the spirit, but in resisting God's will may be withdrawn and the soul be lost. The discourse was an especially appealing one and impressed the large congregation greatly.

There were five confessions at the close of the service and others deeply considering their soul's salvation. Today there will be no service at 9 A. M. but a special service at 4 P. M. and again at 8 o'clock with a 15-minute song service at the beginning of the hour. All are most cordially invited.

TAG DAY A SUCCESS

Financially It Exceeded All Expectations

and Thanks are Returned.

The secretary of the Associated Charities and the chairman of the committee on "Tag Day" wish to thank the ladies and gentlemen and all who acted as "official taggers" for their faithful and zealous services on tag day and the public who generously contributed to the cause.

While the collection did not amount to quite what the papers predicted, it far exceeded expectations and was a most generous sum. At present all of the tags have not been handed in, and the exact amount is not known, but all who took part feel very much gratified and pronounce the day a great success.

BEDSOLE GETS $2,000.

Decision in Unique Damage Suit at Fayetteville.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., May 5.—J. P. Bedsole in his suit against the Atlantic Coast Line for $10,000 for mental anguish caused by being compelled to kill an excursionist, Alexson, on an Atlantic Coast Line train was given $2,000 by the jury in Cumberland Superior Court today, the judge throwing out the allegation of mental anguish after the killing. The defendant appealed.

The Annual Meeting Today.

The annual meeting of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, which has been previously announced, will be held at the Chamber this afternoon at 4 o'clock and a full attendance of members is urged. Outside of the election of officers a number of important matters will be discussed, which will be of general importance to the members. The president, Mr. J. Allen Taylor, will preside over the meeting. The polls for the annual election of officers will be open from noon to 3 P. M. and all members entitled to this privilege are requested to attend and cast their ballots.

The Theatre

The Crystal Palace makes a complete change of programme today and the top liners, Stanley and James, will be seen in a new one act comedy, "A Pressing Suit," and the playlet will prove as delightful as the one that splendid team presented the first part of the week. The other artists will all make a change of their acts. Joe Freed, the clever and popular German comedian, will serve some new "hot stuff" in the comedy line and will do some more of his clever dancing; Roe Reaves will be seen in different character impersonations and will introduce some of his original song hits, while Miss Jesse Hereford will present a series of new dances and which will be just as attractive as the ones introduced earlier in the week. The new bill should prove a strong drawing card.

Three Films at Bijou.

The Bijou has an unusually attractive offering this afternoon and evening. The subjects include "A Pair of White Gloves," in which a tragedy is unearthed; "The Deception," a story of love and agony, and "And a Little Child Shall Lead Them," a beautiful Bible depiction that will be found especially pleasing to the children.

At the LeGrand.

The pictures at the LeGrand yesterday were highly commended by the large audiences at the theatre afternoon and evening. Extra fine subjects will be offered again this afternoon and evening with a high-class illustrated song.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The monthly meeting of the North Carolina Sorosis has been postponed from this afternoon to Thursday afternoon of next week.

—The regular business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church. A full attendance of members is desired.

—After the regular meeting of Wilmington Lodge No. 532, B. P. O. E., this evening, the members will enjoy a social session in the club rooms. A large attendance is expected.

—The handsome tablet and monument unveiled yesterday upon the ruins of Governor Tryon's mansion was designed and constructed by Mr. B. H. Stephens, the well known architect and engineer of this city.

—Mr. W. L. Grissom, of Masonboro Sound, has purchased the business formerly run by Mr. J. A. Odham, at Front Street Market, and will be pleased to serve all of Mr. Odham's customers, promising them the same square treatment they have received in the past.

—The management of the Crystal Palace has extended an invitation to the members of the Wilmington ball team and to those of the Christian College team to be its guests at the first performance tomorrow night. This will make tomorrow night a sort of baseball night at the popular Palace.

"SAILORS" IN FINE TRIM.

Men Hard Down to Practice—Two Games Here This Week.

All of Capt. "Dick" Smith's sailor lads who will represent Wilmington on the diamond this season have reported and are now down to hard work at the park, getting into shape for the opening of the season Monday. Capt. Smith says he is well pleased with the outlook and will know the reason why the pennant does not come into this territory again this season. All the men are showing up well and the process of elimination will be a difficult one.

Tomorrow and Saturday the team will play exhibition games with the Christian College nine of Wilson, which has been "up against" several of the League teams this season and the fans will be able to pretty accurately judge of the prowess of the Sailors from the showing made with the collegians. The grounds are being placed in perfect readiness and large crowds will doubtless witness these exhibition games.

MRS. JULIAN POPE DEAD.

Passed Away at Home of Her Mother in Bladen.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., May 5.—The distressing information was received here at noon today of the death of Mrs. Julian Pope, which occurred at 10 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Porter, at Emerson, Bladen county. Mrs. Pope was known to be in bad health but very few knew of her serious condition. Her little daughter died here last Thursday and she with her husband went to Emerson Saturday where it was hoped she would improve. Mr. and Mrs. Pope were married in Wilmington about three years ago and have spent most of the time here since. Mr. Pope has the deepest sympathy of this entire community in his doubly sad bereavement. The funeral will be conducted at Emerson tomorrow at 3 o'clock. Rev. C. H. Durham, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in Lumberton, officiating. The parents of Mr. Pope went down this morning.

Engine Connection Tested.

By reason of the location of its office and the direction of the wind at the time the hose was turned on, the Star is in position to say without equivocation that there was a most satisfactory test of the new engine connection with the river at foot of Princess street yesterday afternoon. Chief Schnibben and Commissioners French, of the Police and Fire Board, were in charge and the new connection worked admirably.

City Hall.

The new officers will take charge of their respective departments at once, several of them qualified yesterday afternoon. Following the election of these officials the Board adjourned subject to call after Mayor MacRae had announced his appointments of committees as follows: Finance—Hall, Hinton and Stone. Streets and Wharves—Bonitz, Willard and Ellis.

Sanitary—Ellis, Karr and Fales. Lights—Stone, Yopp and West. Markets—Fales, Hinton and West. Public Buildings—Yopp, Karr and Stone.

Ordinance—Karr, Bonitz and Hall. Water and Sewerage—Hinton, Willard and Yopp.

Police—Willard, Hall and Ellis.

Fire—West, Fales and Bonitz.

It will be seen that in making the assignment of committees that each member was given a place on three committees and made chairman of one.

Police Commission Organizes.

Immediately the new Board of Aldermen qualified, members of the Police Commission, the Mayor and Alderman French being of the retiring board, met in the office of the City Clerk and Treasurer and duly qualified by taking the oath prescribed as administered by Justice of the Peace John J. Furlong. Only ex-Mayor Springer, Mr. French and Capt. John Barry, of the Commission, were present, ex-Alderman R. H. Northrop having declined to serve after his appointment for business reasons and because of his incumbency conflicting with his office as city clerk and treasurer of Wrightsville Beach, and Mr. R. A. Burnett, the fifth member of the Board being absent on business in France. The vacancy caused by the declination of Mr. Northrop to serve will be filled later from the Third ward. The commission yesterday only effected a temporary organization with ex-Mayor Springer temporary chairman, the city clerk and treasurer being ex officio clerk, and Col. C. H. White acting for the first meeting yesterday.

It was decided to defer the permanent election of members of these respective departments until the Commission is more fully organized. Members of the Commission are experienced in governmental affairs and will be able to well handle these two important branches of city administration, which all are agreed should be removed from politics and it is understood that such is the purpose of the Commission, which will adopt civil service rules to obtain in both departments.

DR. HARTMAN HERE.

Conferring With City Dairy and Meat

Inspector as to Local Conditions.

Dr. W. J. Hartman, Assistant State Veterinarian of the North Carolina Agricultural Department, is in the city, a guest at the Colonial Inn, having spent yesterday in the city in conference with Dr. T. B. Carroll, city dairy and meat inspector. Dr. Hartman was pleased to find conditions much improved here and made a number of suggestions of value to Dr. Carroll. He leaves today for the State test farm at Willard, N. C., where he will confer with those in charge as to the veterinary features of the experimental work being carried on there.

SALERS OF NECKWEAR AND CANDIES.

The High School will conduct an interesting sale of neckwear and candy at the school tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock for the benefit of the school library. The young ladies in charge hope to have all their friends call and make purchases, receiving value received and at the same time contributing to a most worthy cause.

Moonlight Excursion Tonight.

The moonlight excursion on the steamer Wilmington, postponed from last Monday evening, will be given this evening and all who take the trip will be delighted with the outing. The steamer will leave her wharf at 8 o'clock and the fare for the round trip will be only 25 cents.

BASE BALL

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, May 5.—Another baseball war appears possible to close followers of the game. This belief is given color by the announcement of the National Commission that the revised national agreement as framed up to suit the American Association and the Eastern League has been abrogated through the failure of these two leagues to sign the instrument within the time limit set.

interest, Governor Tryon, of North Carolina, by Marshall Delancey Haywood. It may be that our University student with the usual feeling of a University man, may think his essay would have outlasted this book; with due appreciation of this and craving your indulgence, hoping at the same time not to tax your patience and time to read selections from the earlier chapters of this book. Before doing this I am pleased to refer to an incident connected with the history of the time we represent. A conversation with Mr. James Sprunt revealed one of the most gracious and graceful acts that came to my knowledge, the erection of the monument in the park of Moore's Creek battleground to the memory and honor of the Highlanders, who were defeated in that battle. This monument is erected by the descendants of the victors to those who were defeated in the battle in acknowledgment of their bravery. The inscription I understand is from the pen of Colonel A. M. Waddell.

Dr. McClure read several sketches from the historical research of famous old Brunswick which was interesting and instructive.

The scene of old Russellborough marked principally by the ruins of the "Castle Tryon," residence of the famous English Governor Tryon, situated on an eminence a short distance from the Cape Fear river, was the next place of assemblage for the Dames and their guests, the conspicuous feature of this gathering being the unveiling of the tablet by the Colonial Dames of America, which will permanently preserve its historical importance.

Colonel A. M. Waddell, who is familiar with the historical events of the Cape Fear, had been wisely chosen by the Dames to explain the significance of the tablet and he spoke splendidly and briefly, familiarizing all with the history of "Castle Tryon."

He also exhibited some unique relics found in the ruins of the buildings, among which was a book containing the records of the old customs house, in which are registered vessels which sailed up the Cape Fear during Revolutionary times, and were active in upholding the English government, imposing the stamp act upon the American people.

The tablet was unveiled most gracefully by Mrs. Katherine DeRosset Meares, the first president of the chapter of the Colonial Dames and the oldest member, whose presence was a matter of great gratification. The British flag high up on a flag staff floated prettily over the scene of the exercises and was appropriate to the spot. The tablet will also stand as a monument to the brave men of the Cape Fear, including the honored Geo. Moore, Colonel James Moore and Cornelius Harnett, whose bravery in talking Tryon's mansion is a matter of history.

Marking the conclusion of the annual pilgrimage and 15th annual meeting of the Colonial Dames and visitors returned to the Wilmington and after a most delightful trip as guests of Captain Harper, reached the city at 7:25 o'clock.

The Colonial Dames, who were in attendance upon the day's events and the successful pilgrimage, were Mesdames James Sprunt, Geo. Kidder, Gaston Meares, Virginia Empey, Edmund L. Prince, W. N. Harris, E. P. Bailey, William Green, Hal Boatwright, Horace Prince, M. F. H. Gouverneur, A. M. Waddell, William Calder, Clayton Giles, Van B. Nichols, Olivia Bellamy, Jr., John D. Bellamy, Junius Davis, Louise DeRosset, Geo. R. French, Gabriel Holmes, William McMillan, Clayton Giles, Jr., William Cressy, James Chadbourn, James Kyle, Walker Taylor, Claud Haymond, John Isaac Campbell, Mrs. Curtis, of Southport; Misses Sue McQueen, Elizabeth Waddell, Sarah Kenan, Margaret Kingsbury, Mary Kingsbury, Sarah Lippitt and Carrie Moore. The visiting Dames were Miss Mary Arrington, Goldsboro; Mrs. Frank Sprull, Rocky Mount; Mrs. Francis Ross, Greensboro; Mrs. Chas. Borden, Richmond, and Miss Mary Ellen Chase, Massachusetts.

Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurluck, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a godsend to weak, sickly run-down or old people. Try them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

CRISIS IN NAVAL STORES TRIAL.

Motion of Defense to Acquit Defendants Argued All Day.
(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., May 5.—A crisis was reached in the trial of the so-called turpentine "trust" case today when the defense asked Judge William B. Sheppard, who is presiding, to direct a verdict of not guilty as to all the defendants. In the absence of the jury, this motion was argued all day. Late in the afternoon the court took the matter under advisement without intimating whether he would grant the request of the defense. It is expected that his decision will be rendered tomorrow morning.

It was predicted by attorneys who have closely followed the case that one or more of the defendants would fare as did Charles J. Deloach, secretary of the American Naval Stores Company, who is exonerated, though verdict in his favor was requested by the prosecution.

Judge Samuel B. Adams made the opening and closing arguments for the defense on the motion to direct a verdict. W. M. Toomer, of Jacksonville, Fla., represented the prosecution in the opening arguments and was followed by Mr. Akerman.

Mr. Toomer made a striking assertion when he said: "While I don't want any of my friends at home to discredit me, it does seem to me that if two things are established at all they are these, that Savannah is the primary market for these gentlemen manipulated and that Jacksonville is the burying ground for competitors who attempt to do business."

Mr. Toomer stated that the government would contend that nine out of the twelve specifications in the indictment had been proven. He said it was true that no evidence was in the case in support of the other three specifications.

Judge Adams, in referring to the case of the Consolidated Grocery Company said: "Yes some of these gentlemen are familiar with that case. Even the distinguished United States Senator from Florida who did not think it beneath his dignity to use a stolen letter, knows about the Consolidated Grocery Company."

This statement followed the courts reference to an action under the Sherman act for damages against this company, after Judge Adams had argued that the proper procedure for the Patterson Export Company and the naval Stores Export Company would have been a suit for damages.

TRIAL OF BOYLE BEGINS.

Jury Easily Secured to Try Kidnapper. Mrs. Boyle to Testify.
(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Mercer, Pa., May 5.—James H. Boyle, charged with the abduction of Willie Whittle, of Sharon, Pa., was placed on trial this afternoon. Court adjourned for the day one hour later after a jury had been selected temporarily.

Little difficulty was experienced in securing the jury. Each man was closely questioned and only 27 were examined before the box was filled. It is believed that the trial can be concluded before the end of the present week.

Believing that they could show that Mrs. Boyle is not legally married to James H. Boyle, the prosecution has had her summoned as a witness for the State against Boyle. But the refusal of the priest to attempt the woman's identification has put a stop to their efforts in this line.

WRIGHTS COMING HOME.

Members of London Aero Club Bade Them Farewell.
(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

London, May 5.—Wilbur and Orville Wright sailed from Southampton today on the steamer Kronprinzessin Cecilie for New York. A large gathering of members of the Aero Club bade the American aviators farewell from London.

The presence of the Wright brothers in London has been the sensation of the week and was overshadowed only by the budget. The newspapers have been full of their doings and they have been besieged with invitations to dinner and the recipients of other attentions.

Mrs. Sarah (Morgan) Dawson, of Charleston, S. C., died suddenly in Paris yesterday. Mrs. Dawson was the widow of Captain Francis D. Dawson, proprietor of the Charleston News and Courier. She is survived by a son, Francis W. Dawson, a writer, and a daughter Mrs. Herbert Barry, of New York.

DARKEST DAYS

Are Days of Suffering—They Are Becoming Brighter for Some Wilmington People.

Many "dark days" from kidney ills, Backache, headache—Nervous, tired, Urinary trouble—make you gloomy. Doan's Kidney Pills bring relief; Bring cure to every kidney sufferer. They are endorsed by Wilmington.

Mrs. J. B. Turner, 402 South Fifth street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "My advice to anyone suffering from kidney trouble is to use Doan's Kidney Pills as from personal experience I know that they are a valuable remedy. Backache and severe pains in my kidneys bothered me for a long time. I also had headaches, my eyes pained me and I felt generally miserable. When Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and used them as directed. They stopped the backache and headaches and acted as a tonic to my system."

WARM WIRELETS.

Captain R. R. Ferguson died at Norfolk yesterday, aged 74. The funeral will take place in Charles city county, Virginia. Captain Ferguson was a well known Confederate veteran. He acquitted himself with distinction at Gettysburg.

British riflemen in the international small bore match just ended demonstrated their superiority over the Americans by an overwhelming victory. The match was a friendly one with small bore rifles on gallery ranges in the respective countries.

A man indicted on the charge of criminally concealing portions of his property as he seeks protection from his creditors in bankruptcy cannot be convicted on the evidence engrained by himself. This was the opinion handed down by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday.

DO NOT WORRY

It Makes Wrinkles, Prematurely Ages and Causes Nervous Dyspepsia.

It really doesn't seem sensible for any one to worry or fret about indigestion or dyspepsia; they are curable until they develop into or lead to diseases that may be incurable. Kodol prevents dyspepsia and other serious ailments by giving the stomach effective aid in its processes of digestion—thus making and keeping the stomach well, strong and active. And when you have a sound stomach, you need not worry about dyspepsia, or what it leads to. Indigestion and dyspepsia if neglected too long, will result in irreparable damage to the whole system. Kodol is the stomach's every ready assistant—relieves and helps to prepare this food, and make strength and vigor for the body. Every tablespoonful will digest 2-4 pounds of food. If your stomach is experiencing any difficulty at all in the correct performance of its daily task—try a few doses of Kodol. You will then know just what Kodol is for—and what it will do. Our guarantee—Get a dollar bottle of Kodol. If you are not benefited—the druggist will at once return your money. Don't hesitate; any druggist will sell you Kodol on these terms. The dollar bottle contains 2-12 times as much as the 50c bottle. Kodol is prepared in the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Two Old Adages.

There are two old adages. "Haste makes waste" and "Make haste slowly." That every one should employ when they undertake to cure a cough in a few minutes with preparations containing morphine, opium, chloroform or other narcotics. They may stop the cough and cause sleep quickly, but they also dry up the secretions and constipate, leaving oftentimes a far worse trouble. Rydale's Cough Elixir is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Law to contain no opiates nor harmful drugs of any kind or character. Think about it when you or one of the children have a cough. Robert R. Bellamy.

Malaria Causes Loss of Appetite. The Old Standard GROVE'S TASTE-LESS CHILL TONIC drives out malaria and builds up the system. For grown people and children, 50c.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—The Charlotte Chronicle announces that the general offices of the Southern Power Company may be removed from Charlotte to Spartanburg, S. C.

—Spencer, May 4.—In East Spencer's municipal election today, H. C. Buerck, socialist, defeated C. H. Graber, Democrat, for mayor by a majority of 30 votes. The aldermen were elected by Democrats and Socialists mixed.

—Morven, May 4.—The election which was held here today for a bond issue for the erection of a new school building and for a tax to support the school resulted in favor of the bond issue, the majority being 37. Out of the 105 registered voters 72 voted for it and 31 against it.

—Charlotte, May 4.—The municipal election which was held here today resulted in a big majority in favor of T. W. Hawkins, Democratic nominee, for mayor over E. C. Miller, Republican nominee. The Democratic vote was about 1,000 ahead of the Republicans for Alderman. Miller received 459 votes and Hawkins 1,456.

—Roxboro, May 4.—A message received by Mr. W. I. Newton today conveyed the shocking news that his son, Earl, was drowned yesterday evening in the Hudson river at New York. The only particulars learned were that he was out with a party when the croft capsized. He went down near the shore after making a heroic struggle and long swim to save himself.

—Newbern, May 4.—In the city election today the vote cast was very light. The recorder's court bill was badly beaten. The question of a seven and a half cent increase in the local tax for schools carried by a good majority. There was no opposition to the aldermen as nominated in Democratic primaries and they received the full vote.

—Rocky Mount, May 4.—P. C. Shore is at present having plans drawn and he will, at an early date award the contract for the erection of a handsome three-story building at the corner of Tarboro and Washington streets, at that point in the city known as Five Points. The plans include one of the handsomest store buildings in this section of the State and will be of great credit to the city.

—Sanford Enterprise: We are told that at least 75 per cent. of the negroes of Sanford own their own homes. Some of them also own houses for rent. They also have five churches and a good school that is well attended. Materially the race has made considerable progress here in the past few years. The honest, energetic worthy ones among them enjoy the confidence and have the good will of the white people. Some of this class have bank accounts and can get credit from our merchants.

—Newbern, May 4.—Yesterday at a meeting of the truckers, Superintendent Foster, of the Norfolk & Southern, and Superintendent Fountain, held here it was decided for the new through truck train to leave here at 11 A. M. for Goldsboro, where it will be made a through train for New York on the Atlantic Coast Line. The train will at present be run on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and the Atlantic Coast Line will furnish, as far as possible, ventilated cars for the service. The schedule is satisfactory to all and means better prices for the trucker and the goods will reach the markets earlier and in better condition than is the case with the present schedules.

—Raleigh Times, May 4.—Robert Roberson, the Martin county negro, who shot and killed a Mr. Wichard, of Robersonville, last fall, will hang on Friday, June 11th, 1909. Gov. Kitchen today fixed the date for the carrying out of the sentence. The murder for which Roberson is to hang was a particularly cold-blooded one. The negro claimed that Mr. Wichard owed him for work and shot him without the slightest provocation. He was tried at the September term of Martin county court, 1908, and sentenced to hang Nov. 12th. An appeal was taken and the Supreme Court, in a lengthy opinion written by Justice Brown, affirms the decree of the lower court.

—Statesville, May 4.—John B. Powers, of Buncombe county, formerly a walking boss for the McCabe Company, railroad construction contractors, who was convicted of peonage at the recent term of Federal Court here and appealed his case, is still confined in Fredell county jail. Mr. Powers had expected to arrange the $10,000 bond required several days ago, but there was a misunderstanding among the friends in Buncombe who are to sign the bond and the matter has been delayed. Judge Boyd will be in Asheville this week and if he will allow the bond to be given there it will be arranged at once. If the bondsmen are forced to come to Statesville to sign the papers the matter cannot be arranged for several days. The bondsmen would have signed the bond before the clerk of Federal Court at Asheville the first of last week, but Judge Boyd refused to allow them to arrange the matter in Asheville. Mr. Powers' father was here this week to see him. His wife, who spent some days with him, has returned home. There is considerable sympathy for Powers in Statesville.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows:
"When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my shoulders and now it is away below my hips."

Another from Newark, N. J.
"I have been using Danderine regularly. When I first started to use it I had very little hair, now I have the most beautiful long and thick hair anyone would want to have."

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other one preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., CHICAGO, ILL., with their name and address and 10c in silver or stamps to pay postage.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
New York, May 5.—The cotton market was kept active today but ruled generally steady to firm with the close steady at a net advance of 6 to 8 points. The market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 3 points on covering and scattered buying which was probably furthered by the steady showing of the Liverpool market as compared with expectations.
Following the call there was some little irregularity but the market soon firmed up on rumors that more aggressive bull support might be expected during the afternoon, talk of a better spot demand and continued complaints from sections covered by the recent storm of unfavorable crop conditions.
Bull support did not materialize as predicted by early gossip and after prices had shown a net gain of about 8 to 10 points during the afternoon the market turned slightly easier under realizing by early buyers, selling by some of the old longs and scattering bear pressure. The close was 3 or 4 points off from the top on the active months.
Receipts at the ports today were 28,047 bales against 19,293 last week and 7,208 last year. For the week 125,000 bales against 129,443 last week and 59,153 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 6,170 bales against 2,657 last year and at Houston 2,433 bales against 2,306 last year.
Spot cotton closed quiet, 5 points higher. Middling uplands 10.90; middling gulf 11.15; sales 300.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
New York, May 5.—The dry goods market is generally quiet. Buying is light for immediate use but some very fair fall business is being placed. Business in silk piece goods is quiet but mills making wide piece dyes are sold ahead for some months. The knit goods trade is quiet and prices favor the buyer. Cotton goods are firm. Yarns are quiet.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
New York, May 5.—The stock market today showed the waning influence of the commodities clause decision in some subsidence of activity and in a mixed tone in the speculation. The stimulation influence of the Supreme Court's action had the edge taken off it by the reports of the cabinet meeting at Washington yesterday and the discussion said to have taken there of ways and means to amend the Hepburn act in a way to make the object of the commodities clause effective and within the limits permitted by the Supreme Court's decree. The stock market element got an impression that the discussion of this decision by the government authorities had served to stir up the whole subject of corporation control and that it would be used to point the arguments in the president's next regular message to Congress and to sharpen those arguments. In the usual market leaders especially in Reading and Union Pacific the fact soon appeared that effective selling orders were placed in the market to meet any further advance in prices.
The effect was to dampen the influence of the bull party and to prompt greater caution in the extension of their operations. The crop outlook came in for renewed consideration, although the immediate news of the state of the weather gave promise of correction of retarding factors at work in the grain fields.
The desire was expressed amongst stock market operators to see the completion of the government report of crop conditions to be issued on Friday to help in estimating the prospect. The result of the day's operations was practically a drawn battle between the contending forces in the speculation.
Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $6,958,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today were $85,100 shares.

DOLLIVER SPEAKS ON TARIFF BILL

Iowa's Senator Continues to Fight For Sincere Revision.

MORE WORDS WITH ALDRICH

Controversy Creates Laughter and Pleases Democrats—Senators
Bailey and Smoot Take Hand in Discussion.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Washington, May 5.—Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, today continued his tariff speech and again he secured the undivided attention of the Senate.

Recalling that Mr. Aldrich had said yesterday that it would be shown to the Senate that no changes increasing the cotton rates had been made by the Senate Committee on Finance, Mr. Dolliver said if that was a correct statement he would expect all of the italics carrying Senate amendments to be stricken from the measure. The fact was, he said, that these cotton rates were increased. He then read from a New York newspaper, which he added had for "twenty years been watchful of the spiritual side of the Senator from Massachusetts." Mr. Lodge, a statement to the effect that Mr. Lodge had said that as reported from the Committee on Finance the cotton schedule as amended by the Senate committee was "of great value to Massachusetts." The same article, he said, also appeared in a Boston paper.

Mr. Dolliver said Mr. Lodge was quoted as saying that "the ad valorem rate on cotton had been increased."

Mr. Lodge said that must be a misquotation. "I stated," he said, "that ad valorem rates had not been increased."

"Then," responded the Iowa Senator promptly, "you were mistaken in stating that, as I have demonstrated to the Senate, and if you did not state that to the Boston newspaper you omitted a very important part of your duty."

"I have mathematically demonstrated that these rates have been increased," said Mr. Dolliver, facing the Massachusetts Senator.

"I have grave doubt about your mathematical demonstration," responded Mr. Lodge.

"I also," said the Iowa Senator, bowing to the Massachusetts Senator, "have grave doubt about some of the infirmities of yourself."

Continuing, Mr. Dolliver said that the Dingley bill provided a tariff for curtains, upholstery and hangings, but the Finance Committee, he said, had introduced the words "suitable for," which applied the rates on a vast amount of cotton goods and gives them an added duty of 50 per cent. besides 40 cents a square yard, two cents a square yard for having superimposed threads and another one cent a yard for mercerization.

Referring to the board of appraisers at New York as "elder statesmen who failed to be re-elected," he went on to explain the mercerization of cotton, declaring that the one cent a yard-for that or similar processes provided in the bill was in excess of the cost of mercerization.

Mr. Smoot said that the mercerization process required Egyptian or sea island cotton. Mr. Dolliver denied the statement and turning to the Democratic side said that was the cotton for which the Senator from South Carolina had so strenuously worked for a tariff duty.

Quickly Mr. Tillman disavowed any desire to have a duty on sea island cotton. He added he was enjoying seeing the Senator from Iowa "throw bricks" at his Republican colleagues, but that he did not want him to throw them at him.

"I thought I was throwing him a bouquet," responded Mr. Dolliver.

Again discussing the mercerization of cotton, Mr. Smoot interrupted to say that cotton lost something in the process.

"Yes," replied Mr. Dolliver, "the process of mercerization is like washing your hands—of course, you lose a little in the waste."

After the laughter on the floor and the galleries had died out, Mr. Dolliver resumed his discussion of the bill declaring that he did hold the members of the Finance Committee responsible for it as they had been forced to hire merchants to explain the bill to them.

Mr. Bailey declared that there is no schedule in the tariff which exposes the frauds and injustice of the entire protective tariff as well as the woolen schedule.

In replying to a question by Mr. Mooney, Mr. Aldrich ventured to prophesy that within 20 years the representatives of the South in the Senate will be voting with the Republicans for protection.

CONSTITUTION IN PERSIA

The Shaw Surrenders to People and Issues Proclamation.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Teheran, May 5.—A proclamation granting a constitution to Persia has been signed by the Shah. The document announces that as a constitutional regime alone is capable of bringing about the restoration of order and promoting the welfare of the people, his majesty accords a constitution to the nation. Elections will be held in accordance with the new electoral law, to be published shortly, and should be completed by July 19, when the deputies will assemble at Teheran.

Joe and Isham Taylor were electrocuted in the Virginia penitentiary yesterday. They were two more of the negroes implicated in the recent Powhatan county tragedy in which Mrs. Shipwith and Walter Johnson were murdered.

OUTRAGES IN TURKEY

Mohammedans Murdering all Men and
Carrying Away Women—Incendiary,
Looting and Bloodshed.
On Verge of Stravation.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Hadj in Asiatic Turkey, May 5.—Notwithstanding the presence of the troops here, the situation is desperate owing to the lack of food and medical supplies. The troops arrived just in time, as the besiegers had succeeded in setting fire to a house on the edge of the city. The fire spread but as the breeze was blowing away from the town, only five buildings were destroyed. A heavy rifle fire was kept up against those who tried to extinguish the flames.

The Mohammedans outside the walls, who seemingly numbered many thousands, pushed their attacks energetically against the inhabitants, killing and wounding many. They were so sarge to get inside the city and plunder the place that they did not observe the approach of Louth Bey and his troops until they were close upon them, whereupon the Mohammedans fled precipitately, carrying off all the cattle outside the city.

Marsh, May 5.—A letter received by messenger from Harni says that every man there has been killed. Only women, girls and boys under ten years of age have been left alive. The churches and houses were plundered and most of them were burned. The letter, which is from the widow of a clergyman, says:

"We have nothing to eat or wear. We are living on grass like animals. Worse than this, the Moslems are trying to force the women and girls to become Mohammedans. Already some of the women have been carried away."

Lucius O. Lee, a missionary here, says:

"We are trying to send food to Harni, although it is dangerous, and to bring away the women as well."

Much excitement has been caused here by the arrangements of the authorities to arrest some of those who have murdered Christians.

CAPTAIN HAINS' INSANITY.

Hypothetical Question of 10,000 Words
Presented to Court.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Flushing, N. Y., May 5.—This was "Hypothetical Day" at the Hains trial. For nearly two hours the jury listened to the reading of a hypothetical question containing more than 10,000 words as propounded by the defense, upon which three alienists are to predicate their opinions of the mental condition of the defendant, Captain Peter C. Hains, when he shot and killed William Annis at the Bayside Yacht Club.

During the cross-examination of the first alienist, Dr. L. Samuel Manson, forms of insanity ranging from ordinary melancholia to the ravings of a hopeless lunatic, were discussed. The jury, and everyone but the witness, at times, appeared to be lost in the weird maze of psychical phenomena.

In answer to the hypothetical question, which covered practically all the actions and speech of the defendant tending to show irrationality as put in evidence, Dr. Manson, declared that Captain Hains was suffering from "impulsive insanity," at the time he killed Annis. He had been the victim of "manic depressive insanity," the day on which his wife, Claudia is alleged to have confessed to him of relations with Annis, up to the time of the shooting.

NEGRO LOSES IN SCUFFLE.

Desperate Prisoner Shot to Death in His Cell by Deputy.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Albany, Ga., May 5.—El Holmes, a desperate negro prisoner, in the county jail at Leesburg, was shot to death this afternoon in a hand to hand fight with Deputy H. D. Logan in a dark cell in the jail, a fight in which the loser could not leave the cell alive. Both men realized this, according to Deputy Logan, and when his chance came he killed the negro.

He entered Holmes' cell and the negro attacked him, it was said, with a stool, beating the officer unmercifully before she latter could draw his pistol. Then a fight began for its possession, which ended when Deputy Logan fired and the negro dropped to the cell floor dead. The officer was exonerated.

MEETS IN THIS STATE.

Methodists' Woman's Board of Foreign Missions Accepts Invitation.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 5.—The Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, today, considered the invitations received from various conferences for the next meeting, finally accepting that of North Carolina. The next conference will be held either in Asheville or Charlotte.

It was decided during the morning session that the board should pay the expenses of the two delegates to the World's Missionary Conference at Edinburgh, Scotland. The proposal to create an annuity fund for retired missionaries was also favorably acted upon.

AGREES TO BUILD RAILROADS.

Proposition Submitted to Stockholders of Statesville Air Line.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., May 5.—W. D. Leeper, of New York, president of the Virginia Southbound Railroad, now being built from Marion, Va., to the North Carolina line, attended a joint meeting of the stockholders of the proposed Statesville Air Line and Elkin & Allegheny railroads at Elkin today and submitted a proposition to take over and complete both roads.

A joint committee was named by the stockholders of the two railroad companies to consider and act upon the proposition.

A DEADLOCK ON THE TARIFF

Congress Will be Long Time in Passing Satisfactory
Bill.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S HAND

He Will Hold Congress Together and Insist on True Revision—He Favors Inheritance Tax to Raise Revenue.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 5.—The possibilities of the passage of the tariff bill and the adjournment of the special session of Congress before June 15 or July 1 seem to have vanished. This conclusion has been reached by the President as a result of recent talks with Senators and Representatives, and he made it known today.

The Senate is not making the headway with the Aldrich measure that was expected and before the new tariff law can be presented to the President for his action, there must ensue a long conference between the representatives of the two houses of Congress.

Among those who have followed the trend of important legislation on the tariff, there is a belief that the real tariff revision bill remains to be framed in conference. Whatever influence President Taft feels he can bring to bear in securing a satisfactory measure will be exerted upon the conferees.

The President is still hopeful that the revenue to be derived from the new bill and with economies in the administration of the government, will prove sufficient to prevent a deficit. If it should be shown, however, that the government finances are in need of further support to meet the current expenditures, the President will adhere to his original proposition that a graduated Federal inheritance tax is the most just that could be levied and would prove the easiest to collect. If such a tax should not prove sufficient to meet the necessities of the government or if it should not appeal to the majority of Congress, the President favors a substitute, or as an additional means of collecting revenue, the imposition of an excise tax on the dividends of corporations. An income tax he believes, and always has believed, should be levied only as a last resort.

Statement was made to the Senate today by Senator Aldrich representing the Finance Committee, and Senator Culberson, the minority leader, analyzing the tariff bill as it was reported to the Senate and comparing it, so far as increases and reductions are concerned, with the Dingley law.

Senator Culberson figured the decreases to be 356, the increases 316, and the number of articles on which the duties are unchanged to be 1,271. Mr. Aldrich made the reductions 379, but furnished no figures as to the number of increases made. He expressed surprise at the number of increases announced by Mr. Culberson and declared that the statement must have been prepared "by a very wonderful man." Mr. Culberson retorted that they were prepared by an expert from the Treasury Department, who is thoroughly competent.

The principal schedules on which there have been increases according to Mr. Aldrich's summary of the higher duties of the Senate bill, are agricultural products and the various luxuries. Mr. Aldrich contended that the increases in the chemical schedule, which are largely on toilet preparations, were made for revenue purposes. Mr. Aldrich claimed that the re-drafting of the cotton schedule was for the purpose of obtaining a more symmetrical classification of cotton yarns and the substitution of specific for ad valorem rates on certain classes of cotton cloth. The latter, he said, are the equivalent of the average rates imposed by the existing law.

ROOSEVELT'S AFRICAN HUNT.

Ex-President Has Killed Four Lions and One Lioness.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Nairobi, British East Africa, May 5.—Theodore Roosevelt went lion hunting again yesterday and before the chase was over two more big lions had fallen before his gun. These animals were encountered and killed in the tall grass. Mr. Roosevelt now holds the record for lion killing in the protectorate. Since Saturday last week a total of five lions and one lioness have been bagged by him.

INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE

Business Activity in Wilmington is on the Increase.

A recent evidence of the steady progress of Wilmington as a commercial center, is the formation of the Southern Map Company which has resulted from the increased demand for maps, plans, prints and accurate drawings of various kinds, used in the growing industrial, engineering and building operations in this vicinity.

This new enterprise occupies Rooms 510, 511, 512, Southern Building, and is equipped with all modern devices for work of the above character, having secured the complete and up-to-date engineering, draughting and blue-printing equipment of Carolina Trucking Development Co. and Hugh MacRae & Co., Engineering Dept. In addition to a full set of instruments of precision of the best manufacture for civil engineering and survey work, the company uses a polar planimeter for the direct computation of land areas from plots, a universal draughting machine for drawing maps and plans and a continuous electric printing machine for making photographic copies of architects' plans, and engineers' and contractors' drawings of all kinds.

The last named apparatus was described in these columns some months ago and is a most ingenious device. A Star reporter was much interested in seeing the electric printing machine in operation and surprised at the rapidity and accuracy with which it reproduces on blue or brown paper or on sensitized cloth, copies of technical maps and plans of every description.

Mr. H. deW. Rapalje, who for the past four years has been associated with the MacRae interests as engineer and has had charge of the colony layout, surveying and mapping work of the Carolina Trucking Development Co., is engineer in charge for the Southern Map Company and is well fitted by training and experience for the highest class of work in this line. Mr. Rapalje took his engineering course at Rutgers College, graduating in 1900, and was located in New York city prior to coming to Wilmington, having been assistant engineer with the Western Electric Co. and inspecting engineer for the Middle States Inspection Bureau.

At the request of Senator Martin and other Virginians, Acting Secretary of War Oliver has directed that a battalion of coast artillery troops at Fort Monroe, Va., and the post band proceed to Petersburg, Va., in time to participate in the ceremonies in that city on the 19th instant. President Taft has accepted an invitation to be present on that occasion.
